DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

1. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 35-46 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. The claims are directed to a "system comprising an integrated compiler". A compiler by itself can be merely software per se. The software (the compiler) by itself is not a process, machine, manufacture or composition of matter unless claimed on either a computer readable storage medium. Examiner suggest changing the claim to either have the compiler on a computer readable storage medium or limiting the compiler to be a physical computer for compiling code instead of merely software.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-34 allowed.
3. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Srinivasan, and all other prior art of record, do not teach or fairly suggest allocating a register when the live range spans a function call in combination with the other limitations in the independent claims.

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments, see remarks, filed 3 March 2007, have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-46 has been withdrawn. However, additional issues have arisen because of the amendment and are explained in detail above.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
